

Greed

Ursula Nafula
Melany Pietersen

English

Grandmother brought fruit from the market.

They looked delicious.

My brother Vusi
was very greedy.

Who bit the fruits?

Grandmother
became angry and shouted.

We suspected Vusi.

We told grandmother.

Grandmother
asked him and he confessed.

Suddenly, Vusi
didn't feel well.

He ran to the toilet.

Vusi held his stomach.

Grandmother asked, "What lesson did you learn from Vusi's experience?"

Greed

Author - Adelheid Marie Bwire

Translation - Ursula Nafula

Illustration - Melany Pietersen

Language - English

Level - First words

© African Storybook Initiative and Molteno Institute 2014

Creative Commons: Attribution 4.0

Source www.africanstorybook.org