

Amazing Daisy

Once upon a time, there was a little farm near a little village.

There lived a little chicken called Daisy.

"When I grow up, I want to fly high, high into the sky," Daisy said.

But all the other chickens laughed at her.

"You are so weird," they said. "We won't play with you anymore."

"Daisy, we can all flap our wings but it's very difficult for chickens to fly," Mama told her.

Daisy wouldn't give up.

Every day she practiced by herself, flapping her wings.

Flap, flap, flap, she would flap her wings but she couldn't lift off the ground. She imagined herself flying high into the sky.

She imagined herself flying high and looking at the chickens below.

She imagined flying past the sparrows and the swallows. "Wow! A chicken that can fly!" The birds would say.

So Flap, flap, flap, every day Daisy would flap her wings.

She would lift off the ground but fall down again.

"I'm never going to fly!"
Daisy cried to Mama. "The others are right."

"Daisy, you are different from the other chickens. They don't want to fly but you do! You can do it," Mama said.

The following day Daisy climbed to the top of the chicken coop and flap, flap, flap, she flapped her wings.

She flew into the air and flapped her wings and flapped her wings and ...

BAM!

The other chickens
laughed out loud.

"Ha ha ha! We told you!
Chickens can't fly!"

But the next day Daisy
up to the top of the hut.

Flap, flap, flap,
Daisy flapped her wings.

She flew into the air and
flapped her wings and...

She kept flying! The wind beneath her wings grew stronger and she flew higher and higher!

The sparrows and the swallows said, "Amazing! A flying chicken!"

And the other
like her.

They said, "Oh Daisy,
