

Cows and goats in Nuer culture

Maluil Dak Nyuot

English

Cows and goats
are important
animals in Nuer
culture.

Nuer people say that the cow is your mother until your death.

In the ancient days,
the Nuer said that you have two mothers.

Your first mother is the mother who delivered you.

Your second
mother and her sister are the cow
and goat.

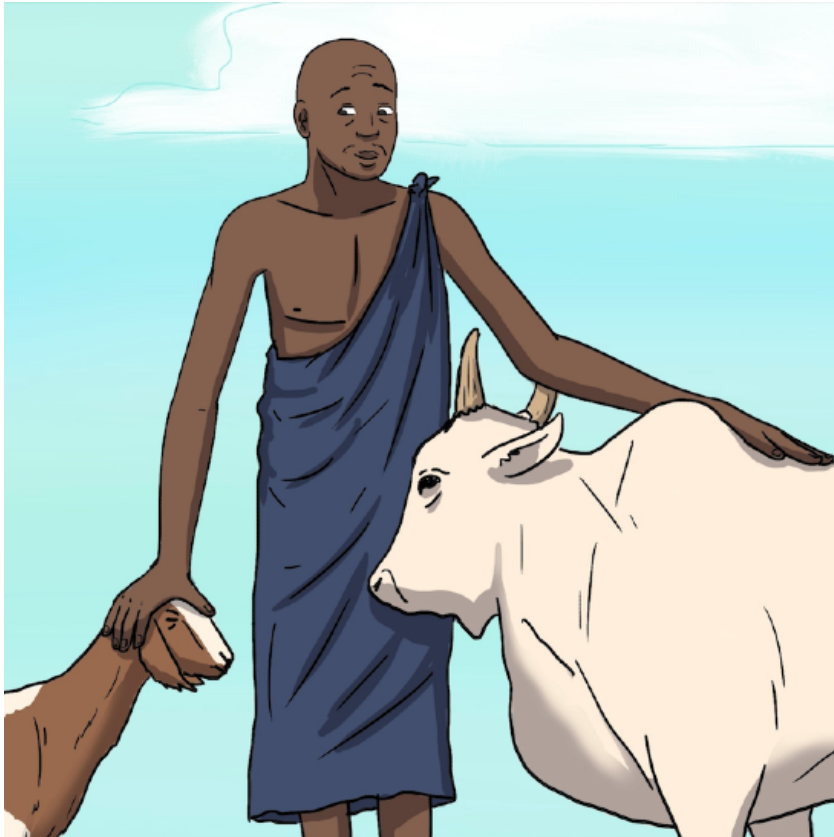

That is why Nuer people love cows and goats above all animals.

Cows and goats are used as dowry in the Nuer community.

They are given as offerings when there is a problem.

Cows and goats
have no comparison in Nuer culture.
